His Privacy Will be Respected by Correspondents When He Takes A Little Sentimental Journey.

OVER HIS HONEYMOON ROUTE

Announces that at Porto Maurizio He Will Receive No One Except Gifford Pinchot.

Rome, April 6.—The final day of Mr. Roosevelt's stay in Rome was quite as busy as the two preceding days. After devoting two hours to his mail and telegrams, he left his hotel at 10 o'clock for a call on Prof. Boni, the archaeologist. At 12 o'clock he received a visit from Baron Fava, formerly Italian ambassador at Washington.

The historian Ferrero entertained the former president and a few friends at luncheon. At the same time Mrs. Roosevelt was the luncheon guest of Mrs. Leishman, the wife of the American ambassador. There were 30 women in the party. Later Mr. Roosevelt went to the embassy and met Mrs. Leishman's guests, as well as a few other American and Italian friends who had called there.

At 5:30 o'clock this afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt, Miss Ethel and Kermit attended a tea given in their honor at the Capoline museum. The tea preceded the dinner tendered Mr. Roosevelt by the municipality of Rome.

At midnight Mr. Roosevelt and Mrs. Roosevelt will leave for Spezia, from which point they will begin, tomorrow morning a carriage drive over the route to Genoa which they traversed on their honeymoon.

The American newspaper correspondents who accompanied Mr. Roosevelt from Khartoum have promised, at the former president's special request, that they will respect the privacy of this sentimental journey.

The carriage drive from Spezia to Genoa, a distance of 85 miles, will occupy the greater part of three days. Arriving at Genoa the Roosevelts will proceed by train to Porto Maurizio, near the French frontier, where they will stop for three days at the villa of Miss Carey, Mrs. Roosevelt's sister.

Mr. Roosevelt has announced that he will receive no one at Porto Maurizio, except Gifford Pinchot, the former chief forester of the U. S. department of agriculture.

Kermit Roosevelt and Miss Ethel will remain here until Saturday, when they will go direct to Porto Maurizio and join their parents.

MERRY DEL VAL GIVES HIS VERSION

Was Question of Common Courtesy and Holy See Imposed No
Conditions on Roosevelt.

STILL IT WAS APPREHENSIVE

Feared He Might, Unwittingly, Show
Open Sympathy With Aggressively
Anti-Catholic Methodists.

Cincinnati, O., April 6.—In a cable-gram to the Cincinnati Times-Star today, Cardinal Merry del Val, through Thomas Kennedy, rector of the American college in Rome, gives the following version of the Roosevelt-vatican incident.

"When all is said and done it was a question of common courtesy. The holy see did not impose on Mr. Roosevelt, as has been wrongly asserted, the condition of not approaching Methodists or other non-Catholic religious bodies in Rome. There are several non-Catholic centers in the city which don't believe in a bitterly hostile and offensive manner toward the pope and toward everything that his holiness and all Catholics hold most dear.

"The Methodist center in Via XX Settembre systematically joins hands with the worst and most anti-clerical and anti-papal elements in Rome and they do so notoriously and in the most aggressive and insulting manner. Mr. Roosevelt himself has had a mild and limited sample of their attitude in the declaration just published by them and which he has felt bound to disavow.

"The holy see, after the unfortunate Fairbanks incident, had every reason to fear that Mr. Roosevelt, unwittingly and in perfect good faith, might be led into showing open sympathy and friendship for this hostile center of aggression against the Catholic church in the heart of the Catholic world. Consequently when Mr. Roosevelt applied indirectly and confidentially for an audience with his holiness the pope, the wish was courteously expressed that he would avoid being dragged into the objectionable position of appearing publicly to support the offensive campaign against the pope.

"Mr. Roosevelt replied, refusing all conditions or agreements and thus allowed the possibility of his accomplishing what would be offensive to his holiness.

"This was amply confirmed by his own secretary, Mr. O'Loughlin, who, when asked whether, without any formal promise or expressed condition, Mr. Roosevelt would, as a matter of fact, not go to the Methodist center in Via XX Settembre, replied that he could give no such assurance and in his opinion Mr. Roosevelt was just the man to do it.

"In view of this attitude the audience became impossible. It is simply a question of common courtesy and surely common courtesy is not incompatible with the rights and freedom of an American citizen."

COLORED SOLDIERS DID THE SHOOTING AT BROWNSVILLE

Washington, April 6.—The military court of inquiry which during the last year has been investigating the shooting up of Brownsville, Texas, today reported a finding that the evidence clearly sustained the charge that the shooting was done by soldiers of the Twenty-fifth infantry, colored. The report was submitted to the secretary of war.

WHAT ARE THE RIGHTS OF BRITISH COLONIES

Can They Deprive Persons of Rights
Conferred by Treaties Between Great Britain and Other Countries?

Washington, April 6.—An array of counsel greater in number and more illustrious in reputation than ever before, assembled at The Hague to engage in the trial of a special case, has been retained to represent America and Great Britain in the determination of what is undoubtedly the most important issue ever present at the tribunal.

Technically this is the determination of differences which have arisen between the two governments as to the true intent of the provisions of article 1 of the treaty of 1818 defining the fishing rights of Americans and Canadians in their respective waters.

The issue of greatest import is the determination of the right of a colony or province, such as Canada or Newfoundland, by local legislation to deprive persons of rights conferred by treaty between the principals. On June 1, next, the arbitration tribunal is to meet at The Hague to hear the oral arguments.

The arbitration court will consist of Dr. Heinrich Lammasch of Austria, umpire, who will act as president; Luis M. Drago, Argentine republic; Jonkhof A. F. De Savornin Lohman of the Netherlands; Judge George Gray of Delaware, and Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, chief justice of the supreme court of Canada.

The agent of Great Britain in this arbitration is the Hon. F. B. Aylesworth, minister of justice of Canada. The counsel on the part of New Foundland are the Rt. Hon. Sir William Robson, K. C., attorney-general of England; the Rt. Hon. Sir Robert Finlay, K. C., former attorney-general of England; Sir H. Erle Richards, K. C., and on the part of Canada John S. Ewart, K. C., George Shepley, K. C.; W. N. Tilley and on the part of New Foundland the Hon. Sir Edward Morris, K. C., premier of New Foundland; the Hon. Sir James Winter, K. C., former attorney-general of New Foundland and the solicitors are Messrs. Blake and Redden.

The agent of the United States is Chandler P. Anderson. The United States counsel are Senator Elihu Root, George Turner and Samuel J. Elder. The associate counsel are James Brown Scott, solicitor for the department of state; Charles B. Warren and Robert Lansing.

HIGH LIVING PROBLEM
FELT IN HIGH SOCIETY

Chicago, April 4.—Now for the crucial test of social leadership: Will Washington and New York and Boston, not to mention Pittsburgh, follow the lead of Chicago where household economy not only has become a paramount problem in most exclusive circles but quite "the thing." No less a social personage than Mrs. Potter Palmer has opened her home to a chafing dish affair, at which the guests were of the social elite. The Chicago Woman's club, one of the largest organizations of its kind in the country, which number among its membership some of the city's most influential women, has become vitally interested in the subject.

But will society in general follow even as a Lenten fast this conspicuous example? Will the dictates of prudence triumph where lavish display has reigned? The lecturer at Mrs. Palmer's magnificent home, Miss Anna Harrows, declared that the problem was "the cost of high living and not the cost of living."

If Chicago can lead in things social the movement is on, kitchen economy will come in for consideration. In most brilliant setting seen throughout the east and west. As it is a subject in high standing abroad, in England, France and other countries the prediction is made that a new milestone has been passed in American standards of what is "proper."

Miss Harrows declared: "Waste and extravagance in purchasing meats, fruits, and vegetables accounts in great part for the increased cost of living. Persons demand the choice cuts of beef, while other parts could be procured cheaper and when properly prepared would be as nourishing and as palatable. There is a great waste in buying fresh fruits where dried fruits would be as good if properly prepared."

"The trouble with American women," declared Mrs. Edward L. Upton, president of the Woman's club, at a meeting enlivened by arguments for domestic economy in preference to other topics, "is that we have been taught to buy only the most expensive things, even when we cannot afford them, just because we think we will be losing caste if we try to be frugal."

"The cost of living problem will be solved when we get rid of some of our false pride, which even extends to the things we eat as well as the things we have and wear. There is no disgrace in serving other cuts of meat than porterhouse or sirloin steak or loin roasts. That is commendable economy. The disgrace is in being wasteful. We all know that it is not possible because it is high to cut meat from our diet, especially from the menu of the working people."

Mrs. William H. Tyler, chairman of the home department of the club, thinks the meat question is the most important part of the living problem. "If women knew how to buy meats intelligently," she said, "and prepare them properly there wouldn't be such an outcry against high prices."

"Just because they are expensive cuts is no reason why every woman should think she would lower her dignity by buying anything else. Eggs are cheap food, butter isn't very expensive now, and a good and nourishing meal can be prepared at moderate cost by using the rump, chuck or shoulder, or other so-called cheaper cuts of meat. Dried beef, though apparently costly, is cheap because of its nutritive value, and it can be used as the basis for many delicious dishes."

DEED.
THAXTON.—In this city, April 6, 1910, George A. 5 months, 5 days, son of A. M. Oliver L. Thaxton.
Funeral Thursday at 2 p.m. from the residence, 25 Clinton Ave., with interment at City cemetery.
